

Crystal Wagner

The way you listen changes everything!

Crystal Wagner is a Professional Certified Coach credentialed through the International Coaching Federation and a faculty member at the Professional Christian Coaching Institute. With 17 years of homeschooling experience, a neurodiversity-informed perspective, and extensive training in the art and science of coaching, she creates calm, engaging spaces where insight becomes action.

Crystal speaks to women, leaders, and organizations who want stronger relationships, calmer conversations, and more sustainable influence. Her faith-grounded and research-based work equips audiences with practical listening shifts they can apply immediately.

Speaking Topics

Experiential Workshops for Connection and Growth

- LEGO® Serious Play® Workshops
- Influence Factor: Building Stronger Relationships Through Active Listening
- Fully Present: Cultivating Connection with God, Yourself, and Others

Continuing Education for Coaches & Leaders

- Embodied Servant Leadership: How to Improve Your Leadership Impact Through Somatic Awareness
- Coaching Every Brain: Creating Psychological Safety in Diverse Thinking Spaces
- Demonstrates Ethical Practice: Living ICF Core Competency #1 in Real Life

Small Group Retreats or Multi-Session Workshops

- Stronger Together: Bringing Out The Best In Each Other For A Thriving Marriage
- Parenting Lifeline: A Coach Approach to Parenting Teens

What Audiences Walk Away With

After a session with me, participants often:

- Feel heard and unhurried
- Understand specific listening shifts they can implement immediately
- Experience greater clarity in difficult conversations
- Gain language they can use right away
- Feel more confident about how to influence without controlling

The outcome is not just information. It is a way of being.